

General Data Protection Policy (GDPR)

Statement

GDPR stands for General Data Protection Regulation and replaces the previous Data Protection Directives that were in place. It was approved by the EU Parliament in 2016 and comes into effect on 25th May 2018. GDPR states that personal data should be 'processed fairly & lawfully' and 'collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes' and that individual's data is not processed without their knowledge and are only processed with their 'explicit' consent. GDPR covers personal data relating to individuals. Nippertime Preschool Limited is committed to protecting the rights and freedoms of individuals with respect to the processing of children's, parents, visitors and staff personal data. The Data Protection Act gives individuals the right to know what information is held about them. It provides a framework to ensure that personal information is handled properly. Nippertime Preschool Limited is registered with the ICO (Information Commissioners Office) under registration reference: Z9758153 and has been registered since 28th March 2007. Certificate is on display on the parent's information board at Nippertime Preschool.

GDPR includes 7 rights for individuals

1. The right to be informed

Nippertime Preschool Limited is a registered Childcare provider with Ofsted and as so, is required to collect and manage certain data. We need to know parent's names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, date of birth etc. We need to know children's' full names, addresses, date of birth and receive a copy of your child's birth certificate. This information is provided when you complete our registration form. For parents claiming the free nursery entitlement we are requested to provide this data to Surrey County Council; this information is sent to the Local Authority via a secure electronic file transfer system.

We are required to collect certain details of visitors to Nippertime Preschool. We need to know visits names, telephone numbers, addresses and where appropriate company name. This is in respect of our Health and Safety and Safeguarding Policies. As an employer Nippertime Preschool Limited is required to hold data on its employees; names, addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, date of birth, National Insurance numbers, photographic ID such as passport and driver's license, bank details. This information is also required for Disclosure and Barring Service checks (DBS) and proof of eligibility to work in the UK. This information is sent via a secure file transfer system to GBG online disclosures for the processing of DBS checks. Nippertime Preschool Limited uses Cookies on its website to collect data for Google Analytics, this data is anonymous.

2. The right of access

Nippertime Preschool Limited is a company registered in England & Wales. Registration No: 04661688. Registered Office: Ravensdene, Slines Oak Road, Woldingham, Surrey, CR3 7HL. At any point an individual can make a request relating to their data and Nippertime Preschool Limited will need to provide a response (within 1 month). Nippertime Preschool Limited can refuse a request, if we have a lawful obligation to retain data i.e. from Ofsted in relation to the Early Years Foundation Stage, (EYFS), but we will inform the individual of the reasons for the rejection. The individual will have the right to complain to the ICO if they are not happy with the decision.

3. The right to erasure

You have the right to request the deletion of your data where there is no compelling reason for its continued use. However, Nippertime Preschool Limited has a legal duty to keep children's and parents' details for a reasonable time*, Nippertime Preschool Limited retain these records for 3 years after leaving Preschool, children's accident and injury records for 19 years (or until the child reaches 21 years), and 22 years (or until the child reaches 24 years) for Child Protection records. Staff records must be kept for 6 years after the member of leaves employment, before they can be erased. This data is archived securely offsite and shredded after the legal retention period. There is a full Risk Assessment in place for transportation and storage. A copy of this Risk Assessment can be provided upon request.

4. The right to restrict processing

Parents, visitors, and staff can object to Nippertime Preschool Limited processing their data. This means that records can be stored but must not be used in any way, for example reports or for communications.

5. The right to data portability

Nippertime Preschool Limited requires data to be transferred from one IT system to another, such as from Nippertime Preschool Limited to the Local Authority, to shared settings and to Tapestry Online Learning Journal. These recipients use secure file transfer systems and have their own policies and procedures in place in relation to GDPR.

6. The right to object

Parents, visitors, and staff can object to their data being used for certain activities like marketing or research. We do not currently nor have any future plans to carry out these activities.

7. The right not to be subject to automated decision-making including profiling

Automated decisions and profiling are used for marketing-based organisations. Nippertime Preschool Limited does not use personal data for such purposes.

Storage and use of personal information

All paper copies of children's and staff records are kept in a locked cupboard at Nippertime Preschool and at the registered office. Members of staff can have access to these files but information taken from the files about individual children is confidential and apart from archiving, these records remain on site at all times. These records are shredded after the retention period.

Information about individual children is used in certain documents, such as, a weekly register, medication forms, referrals to external agencies and disclosure forms. These documents include data such as children's names, date of birth and sometimes address. These records are shredded after the relevant retention period.

Nippertime Preschool Limited collects a large amount of personal data every year including; names and addresses of those on the waiting list. These records are shredded if the child does not attend or added to the child's file and stored appropriately.

Information regarding families' involvement with other agencies is stored both electronically on an external hard drive and in paper format, this information is kept in a locked cupboard and at the Registered Address. These records are shredded after the relevant retention period.

Upon a child leaving Nippertime Preschool Limited and moving on to school or moving settings, data held on the child may be shared with the receiving school. Such information will be sent via the internal Surrey County Council post service or via a secure file transfer system. For children attending school outside Surrey County Council the parent/carer will be
